PDC Violations by Shoreline City Council Candidate John T. Chang.

Mr. John Chang who is running for reelection to the Shoreline City Council has numerous Public Disclosure Commission violations. In general, (1) his reports have been filed significantly late, (2) he has failed to file electronically as required by the PDC, and (3) he has failed to report any of the employers or occupations of contributors who have contributed more than $100.

1. A deposit for $600 was made on June 16, 2005. This contribution should have been reported on a C3 by July 11, 2005. It was not reported until July 29, 2005.
2. A deposit for $12,985 was made on July 8, 2005. This contribution should have been reported on a C3 by July 11, 2005. This contribution was not reported until July 29, 2005.
3. A deposit for $2,530 was made on July 23, 2005. This contribution should have been reported on a C3 by July 25, 2005. It was not reported until July 29, 2005.
4. The C3 reports submitted thus far by the Chang campaign have not been filed electronically. Campaigns that plan to raise more than $10,000 are required to file electronically.
5. The Chang campaign failed to file a C4 report for the June 1, 2005 to June 30, 2005 reporting period on July 11, 2005.
6. On the July 8, 2005 deposit, the date for all the contributions was listed as July 8, 2005. Mr. Chang's campaign kickoff was the previous day, so the date of receipt is incorrect.
7. On page one of the attachment to the C3 for the July 8, 2005 deposit, there is contribution of $150 (half of $300) from Taethoon Lee. Since this contribution is greater than $100 employer and occupation must be listed. No occupation or employer is listed.
